Your Safe House at the Aegean

Sailing in a new catamaran is one of the best vacations' experience that you may ever have!

Recent developments have underlined the importance of having the option to feel comfortable and safe without isolating: We are here to offer your Safe House at the Aegean Sea!

Our base is in Mykonos one of the most cosmopolitan destinations in the world. It has an international airport with plenty of flights from all over the world and it is only a 20 mins flight from Athens.

There is a well-organized marina next to the new port, where visiting and resident sailboats are docked.

The Key of Joy

A 2020 Lagoon 42 Catamaran with 4 cabins and 4 bathrooms + 2 single crew cabins with a separate toilet. Its maximum capacity is 12 persons.

Its dimensions are 12.8 meters long x 7.7 meters wide. It is chartered weekly usually from Saturday to Friday.

If you have significant sailing experience you can charter it on your own, however we would recommend that you use one of our preferred skippers for you to have the best possible experience.

The boat has a fully equipped kitchen, 2 fridges and 1 freezer where you can cook, store and prepare all meals.

The Key of Joy

There is a generator, A/C in all 4 double cabins (with bed and linen) and salon (turns to double bed) and a water maker so you can be fully independent.

The boat follows all safety and Covid - 19 safety protocols.

Additional equipment includes a teak wood deck, a large teak table, and the enhanced sails pack.

There are also snorkelling equipment and water toys available, like SUP and seabobs and e bikes available for charter at an additional charge.
